Lucian Radu

PRODUCT DESIGNER

ABOUT ME

With strong passion for all things digital and a deep understanding of modern communication, I like to create meaningful, well thought and beautiful products.

My focus is on creativity, concept and imagination, always through a process of research and development. Aiming to keep ahead of technological and artistic trends I am constantly experimenting, learning and expanding my skills.

I enjoy both working in a studio team environment as well as taking on solo commissions. For more information, feel free to contact me.
